Helpful Information for Redeeming Planet Fitness Discounts

- Visit PlanetFitness.com/promos/corporatemembership or scan the QR code.
- Select your state from the list. You'll find all participating locations available for selection. You can click/tap the location name to see more information about the location, and the "View Club Details" link will take you to that same page. To start the sign-up process, just click/tap the "Join this Club" yellow button.
- Once you click/tap "Join this Club," you'll see a link near the top that reads "Have a Promo Code?" Just click/tap that link, enter the promo code for the membership option you want, and then it'll take you to a new page to begin the enrollment process.
- If you prefer to join in-club with a promo code instead of online, our teams are prepared to accommodate! We just ask that you bring either a digital or physical copy of the promo code flyer as validation.
